£339pp (£15 single supplement) Our itinerary this weekend will include a visit to the Royal Naval College at Dartmouth on Monday morning. We will have a guided tour of this iconic building which has been training naval officers for over 100 years and where Princess Elizabeth first met her future husband.

Dartmouth Royal Naval College

Sunday 17th May - 6 days Ilfracombe and North Devon, Dilkhusa Grand Hotel.

£609pp No single supplement

From Exmoor to the scenic coast line, known for its dramatic cliffs and sandy beaches, we explore North Devon and discover the many legends and stories that make this region an unforgettable experience full of history and culture.

The 3-star Dilkhusa Grand Hotel in Ilfracombe offers exceptional facilities with an inviting bar and lounge and a restaurant.

With 98 bedrooms the hotel promises a relaxing stay, all rooms have private bathrooms, TVs, hairdryer and complimentary internet access. There is a lift and the hotel also has some ground floor rooms most with step in shower. The remaining rooms have bath with overhead shower. Entertainment on 4 nights.

Sunday - Travel to Ilfracombe

Monday - Spend the morning in Ilfracombe then in the afternoon board the coach for a visit to Woolacombe.

Tuesday - A market day visit to Bideford this morning then we head to Clovelly. A visit to this charming traffic free village is like going back in time, entrance is through the visitor center, (entrance fee included.)

Wednesday - Visit the Valley of the Rocks and Lynmouth this morning. Later we travel across part of Exmoor to Simonsbath and then back via Coombe Martin to Ilfracombe.

Thursday - A morning visit to the N.T. Arlington Court (entrance fee included). Return to Ilfracombe early afternoon.

Friday - We leave Ilfracombe for the last time this morning and head to Hestercombe House and Gardens (entrance fee included). We continue our homeward journey arriving back in our local area around 6pm.

Ilfracombe

The Forest Lodge Hotel

Sunday 21st June - 5 days Discovering the New Forest Forest Lodge Hotel, Lyndhurst.

£649pp (£70 single supplement)

With its ancient woodlands and open heathland this is a landscape shaped by people past and present. Escape to a world, far away from normal life, where deer, ponies, cattle and donkeys roam free.

The Forest Lodge Hotel is an elegant Georgian building on the edge of the picturesque village of Lyndhurst. The bedrooms are all en-suite with showers over bath. All rooms have TV, free wi-fi and coffee & tea facilities.

Please note: there is no lift, all public areas are on the flat including the bar, restaurant and lounge.

Sunday - We make a lunch time visit to the lovely city of Winchester before continuing to our hotel.

Monday - A scenic tour around the New Forest today takes us firstly to Burley, 'the witches' village'. From here we continue to Lymington for a lunch time visit then on to Bucklers Hard, an ancient ship building village on the banks of the Beaulieu River (Entrance fee included).

Tuesday - Today we head to the National Motor Museum, Palace House and Gardens at Beaulieu Abbey (Entrance fee included). Also includes 'The Secret Army Exhibition' and the 'We Had One Of Those' exhibition.

Wednesday - We travel to Exbury Gardens (Entrance fee included) this morning where you can travel round the gardens on the one-and-a-half-mile narrow gauge steam railway before exploring the glorious 200-acre garden on foot.

Thursday - We leave the hotel for the final time this morning and travel across the northern part of the New Forest via the B0378 en-route to Salisbury where we make a stop before heading for home.

Monday 29th June - 7 days North Devon and Cornwall Coastal Explorer

£959pp (£120 single supplement)

This new tour based in the Devon town of Barnstaple explores the dramatic and picturesque coast from North Devon to North West Cornwall. Picturesque fishing villages, fabulous coastal scenery throughout the week plus we visit the RHS Rosemoor Gardens and Hartland Abbey and Gardens. We also have a tour across Exmoor and a visit to the 'Valley of the Rocks'.

Located in the centre of Barnstaple, The Royal & Fortescue Hotel is a gem, with 48 recently refurbished rooms the hotel offers excellent accommodation. The hotel does have a lift which travels to all floors. Once an ancient coaching inn, this hotel retains its historic charm whilst offering all the modern comforts you expect.

Monday - After a leisurely start with taxi pick-ups starting around 8 am we head south to Barnstaple and the Royal and Fortescue Hotel for a 6-night stay.

Tuesday - We have the morning in Barnstaple then this afternoon visit the coastal resort of Woolacombe.

Wednesday - Today we head south and cross the border into Cornwall and continue to the picturesque fishing village of Port Isaac famous as the fictitious 'Portwenn' in the TV show Doc Martin. Next, we make our way to Tintagel, the village and nearby castle have legends associated with King Arthur. Finally, we continue to Boscastle, this picturesque village needed extensive restoration following devastating floods in 2004.

Thursday - This morning we head Hartland Abbey with its beautiful gardens and woodland walks leading to the sea. In the abbey you will find pictures, furniture and porcelain collected by generations of the family that have lived here since Henry 8th gifted the property to the Sargent of his Wine Cellar. The beautiful abbey, gardens and location have made it a popular film location, most recently Enid Blyton's 'Malory Towers' series. (Entrance fee included).

Friday - We head to Devons north coast today and 'the Valley of the Rocks'. Later we follow the coastal road to the beautiful town of Dunster. We return to Lynmouth for a visit and then head across Exmoor to Simonsbath as we make our way back to Barnstaple.

Saturday - Today we head first via the seaside resort of Appledore and then into the lovely town of Bideford. This afternoon we make our way to the Royal Horticultural Society Rosemoor Gardens near Great Torrington (Entrance fee included). Nestled in the Torridge Valley RHS Rosemoor blends formal and informal plantings to magical effect.

Sunday - We say goodbye to Barnstaple and begin our journey home.

Southern England

Wednesday 15th July - 6 days Sidmouth - Kingswood Hotel.

£749pp (No single supplement for first 6)

Situated along the Jurassic Coast, Sidmouth is a seaside town like no other with its impressive coastline, beautiful beaches and gardens, 'A town caught still in a timeless charm' according to John Betjeman.

The Kingswood Hotel overlooks the seafront within easy walking distance of the main town and shops.

This is comfortable seaside hotel with classic charm blended with modern styling, features and facilities, plus gorgeous public spaces and personal, caring service. The 50 bedrooms have memory foam mattresses and flat screen TV's, tea & coffee facilities and wi-fi. All the bedrooms are individually decorated, warm and inviting.

Wednesday - En-route to Sidmouth we visit the town of Marlborough where we make a lunch time stop.

Friday - A longer day out today as we head first to the Isle of Portland where we make a stop at the viewpoint overlooking Chesil Beach and then at Portland Bill visitor centre. From here we travel into Weymouth for an afternoon visit.

Saturday - Today we have included a visit to Bicton Park Botanical Gardens. With over 64 acres to explore spanning nearly 300 years of gardening history, Bicton Park is home to many rare and beautiful species collected from all around the world.

Sunday - Another relaxing morning to enjoy Sidmouth. Then this afternoon we visit Pecorama, (Entrance fee included) with its award-winning gardens and 7.25-inch narrow gauge railway.

Monday - Leaving the hotel at 09:30 we begin our journey home; we will make a 2 hour stop at Clarks Shopping Village in Street en-route finally arriving back in our local area around 5pm.

Tuesday 6th October - 5 days The Isle of Wight

£699pp (£144 single supplement)

One of our favorite destinations based at one of our favorite hotels offering excellent accommodation and great food plus glorious views across the Solent. This is a great base from which to explore this beautiful island packed with history and loved over the centuries by poets and authors.

This will be the 3rd year we have stayed at the Best Western New Holmwood Hotel in Cowes. It is one of the islands finest hotels offering glorious views directly across the Solent. The terrace and restaurant give uninterrupted views of the sea. The hotel is a flat walk into the centre of Cowes. All 26 bedrooms offer TV, free wi-fi, tea & coffee making facilities, all are en-suite with bath/ showers.

Please note there is no lift, there are a few ground floor bedrooms.

Tuesday: We head to the south coast for our ferry to the Isle of Wight.

Wednesday: We explore the west of the island today heading first to the village of Godshill and then travelling along the south of the island and round its western point to Yarmouth. From Yarmouth we travel through the center of the island to Calbourne where we can make a stop at the Calbourne Water Mill. Calbourne is one of the oldest working water mills in the country, here you will also find tea rooms and a gift shop and a small war museum.

Thursday: Today we visit Osborne House the island home of Queen Victoria.

Friday: We head to Shanklin this morning then travel over the high downs and via Brading, Bembridge and St Helens before arriving in Ryde for an afternoon visit.

Saturday: We did farewell to the Isle of Wight as we board our ferry and head for home.

New Holmwood Hotel

Monday 9th November – 5 days Turkey & Tinsel in Cornwall

£579 pp (£40 single supplement)

See dramatic landscapes created by ancient tin, China clay and copper mines, this peninsular which juts into the Atlantic Ocean has long been a popular destination for British holidaymakers.

The Esplanade Hotel is a picturesque and contemporary 4-star hotel overlooking the world famous Fistral Beach. The town of Newquay is just a short stroll away, with its shops, restaurants, bars and its picturesque harbour. The hotel has a leisure centre with a heated indoor pool, hot tub and sauna. Enjoy wonderful sea views from the lounge and restaurants. The bedrooms are simple and super comfy with modern bathrooms, TV, wi-fi and tea & coffee facilities. The hotel does not have ground floor bedrooms, but does have a lift to all floors.

Sea Views rooms are available at a supplement.

Monday: Our taxi pick-ups will be starting around 7:30 this morning, then after joining the coach we travel to Cornwall with plenty of comfort stops en-route including a visit to the famous Jamaica Inn on Bodmin Moor. We should arrive at our hotel around 5pm.

Tuesday: We have visits to the city of Truro and then the coastal resort of Falmouth today.

Wednesday: We travel to the opposite Cornish coast and visit the picturesque resorts of Fowey and Mevagissey. We also make a short stop in Charlestown, a UNESCO World Heritage Site where classic tall ships anchor in the ancient harbour.

The Esplanade Hotel

Thursday: We have some time in Newquay this morning then follow the coast road to Padstow, this picturesque resort is one of Cornwall's most successful fishing ports set on the Camel Estuary.

Friday: We head for home making comfort stops en-route and our ETA back in our local area is 6pm.

Extras included: Sherry reception, visit from Santa, traditional Christmas Dinner, complimentary bar between 18:00 and 21:00 each evening on selected drinks, entertainment each evening.

Sunday 6th September - 6 days Northumberland, Country, Coast and Stately Homes The Riverdale Hotel, Bellingham

£855pp (£50 single supplement)

We are returning to the Riverdale Hall Hotel in the village of Bellingham for the 2nd year, set on the edge of the National Park it is a great base to explore the region. Built in 1886 as a Victorian Mansion, it has retained all of the original charm and character whilst having been converted to a modern country house hotel with 28 individually decorated bedrooms, indoor heated pool and sauna. It has been named the "Best Hotel in Northumberland", this premier Country House Hotel offers award-winning cuisine, lovely, extensive grounds, quaint riverside location and wonderful views.

The bedrooms are individually decorated, some have south facing balconies or patios. All the rooms are en-suite and have comfortable beds.

Please note: there is no lift and there are stairs/steps to most of the rooms and some of the rooms are in the annexe. There are some ground floor rooms. All rooms have TV and tea & coffee facilities.

England's most northerly county has fine scenery, and a rich history shaped by its strategic border location with Scotland. From Roman occupation and Anglo Saxon Kingdoms to medieval border warfare and the industrial revolution the counties history is etched into its dramatic landscape, many castles and cultural heritage.

Sunday - We head north via the M6 as far as Penrith from where we cross the Pennines via the very scenic A686 route. As this road crosses the Hartside Pass we reach over 1900 feet above sea level and, weather permitting, will witness some magnificent views. We continue via Alston and past Hexham, then cross Hadrian's Wall en-route to our hotel. We will make plenty of stops en-route and aim to arrive at the Riverdale Hall Hotel around 4:30pm.

Monday - A leisurely start departing the hotel at 10:30 we zig-zag across the Northumberland countryside, as we make our way to Wallington Hall for an included visit. Discounts for National Trust Members.

Tuesday - We head to the coast today travelling via Rothburgh then across to the coast near Amble. We then head north via Warksworth and make our way to Seahouses and later to Bamburgh. Bamburgh, in the shadow of Bamburgh Castle, is famous for its Grace Darling connections whilst Seahouses, which is perfect for that fish and chip lunch, is a large seaside village which offers great coastal scenery and has a vibrant fishing harbour.

Wednesday - We head north and begin a very scenic circular tour which takes us first across the Scottish Border at Carter Bar then via Jedburgh and Kelso from where we make our way back into Northumberland and on to Chillingham Castle. This 13th C. Castle has fine rooms, gardens, lake, fountain and tea rooms. We have a guided tour of the castle to hear about its history, battles and ghosts.

Thursday - We head south of Bellingham today and travel along the course of Hadrian Wall with included visits to the Roman Vindolanda Fort and Museum and also the Roman Army Museum. Our return journey briefly crosses the Scottish Border again and takes us via Liddesdale and the Kielder Forest Park with views of Kielder Water where we make our final stop of the day at the Tower Knowles Visitor Centre.

Friday - We bid farewell to the Riverdale Hall Hotel and head to Hexham for a morning visit before resuming our homeward journey. Our ETA into our local area is 18:00.

The Thursford Spectacular – 2 days – The Le Strange Arms Hotel

Wednesday 9th December - £279 - (single supplement £20) and

Monday 14th December - £279 - (single supplement £20)

Thursford Christmas Spectacular is an extravaganza of non-stop singing, dancing, music, humour and variety.

The Le Strange Arms Hotel is one of Norfolk's finest hotels, standing just a stone's throw from the sea with lawns leading down to a sandy beach. The hotel offers guests the perfect location to escape and relax in its stylish and comfortable surroundings. We have used this hotel previously and can thoroughly recommend it for its high standard of rooms and food. The hotel does have some ground floor rooms as well as a lift to all floors. Plus, it is an ideal location, just 45 minutes from Thursford.

It's a fast-moving celebration of the festive season featuring an eclectic mix of both seasonal and year-round favourites.

With a cast of 130 this is the biggest Christmas show of its kind in Europe.
